Primary Drive in Final Stage; Big Vote Predicted

Ballot Delivery to Begin Monday; Voter Registration is Up

A sharp pickup in the pace of primary election activities developed this week as the Madison county clerk's office worked toward completing a final registration tally and candidates for nomination to county and district offices in the June 11 balloting prepared for their final week of campaigning.

Political observers already are predicting a heavier-than-usual vote in primary balloting this year because of a sizeable increase in voter registration and the fact that five major contests are being waged by the Democrats at county and district level, Republicans, on the other hand, have a ticket of unopposed candidates at all levels below the state ticket.

At the state level, however, the picture is reversed. Democrats seeking nomination to state offices and as U. S. Senator are without opposition all down the ballot, while Republicans have contests for every state office subject to election this year. Six candidates are seeking the Republican gubernatorial nomination, a lone, while three are contesting the U. S. Senator nomination.

370 Absentee Ballots
County Clerk Eulalia Hotz reported yesterday that 370 applications for absentee ballots.

Judge Lewis, 62, Dies, Stricken at Courthouse

Austin A. Lewis, associate judge of the Third Judicial Circuit of Madison and Bond Counties and a local civic leader, died early Tuesday morning in St. Mary's Hospital, Clayton, Mo.

He had suffered a sudden severe cerebral vascular accident (stroke) at about 10 a.m. Monday at the Madison county courthouse at Edwardsville while preparing to impanel a grand jury.

Memorial services were held at 11:30 a.m. today in courtroom No. 3 at the courthouse.

As he was a member of the official family of the city of Madison for more than 20 years, Mayor Stephen Maers ordered American flags in the city to be flown at half mast for 30 days.

Judge Lewis was elected to the office of probate judge in 1962 and became an associate judge soon after the adoption of the judicial reform amendment. He sat on the bench in both the Edwardsville and Granite City divisions of circuit court.

A former state's attorney, he also served as assistant state's attorney and as a county public defender, and was best known to the public for his wide trial experience in the field of criminal law.

Veteran Resident
Judge Lewis, who resided at 1624 Fourth street, Madison, was born in Winona, Mo., but lived in Venice and Madison for 60 years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Louise (Puetz) Lewis; four sons, Army Sp4 Daniel Lewis, Lewis of Fort Riley, Kans., Stephen Lane Lewis, Austin A. Lewis Jr. and Alan Dale Lewis, all of Madison; and a brother, Eugene L. Lewis of Mesa, Ariz.

He was a graduate of Venice high school but obtained his first job at the age of 12 when he was employed by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. as a messenger. He later was employed by the Barber Asphalt Co. as a laborer, by the International Shoe Co. as a leather cutter and by the Chicago & Alton and the Wabash railroads as a clerk.

He obtained his law degree at Washington University, St. Louis, while working nights for the two railroads where he was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks.

Serving as a lawyer for 40 years, he maintained offices in Granite City until his judicial election with the exception of four years in the service.

Military Service
At the age of 37, he enlisted in U. S. Army as a private after the outbreak of world war II. After basic training, he was assigned to the counter-intelligence corps, military intelligence division, Army Ground Forces, as a special agent.

While overseas he saw service in England, France, Belgium, Luxembourg, Holland and Germany, within the combat

Official Objects To Treatment at Pollution Meet

Madison county State's Attorney Leon Scroggins charged yesterday that several Illinois legislators were "arrogant, disinterested and lacking in knowledge of state statutes relating to landfill operations" during an East St. Louis air pollution hearing Monday in which Scroggins and another Madison county official were criticized severely.

County officials were criticized for not following state laws banning the operation of dumps in areas subject to flooding.

Scroggins said that in his appearance late Monday afternoon before a hearing of the joint legislative air pollution study committee and the steering subcommittee of the Senate Municipal Corporations Committee "I was treated with a complete lack of courtesy and common respect."

"I was amazed," Scroggins added, "that our legislators could be so ignorant of laws involved in issues on which they are holding hearings."

Criticizes Legislators
At the same time, Jack Clifford, building and zoning department director, said that developments in Monday's hearing session "indicate the caliber of men we get on these committees. It would seem to me they would inform themselves on the true facts before they conduct a hearing. It seems that we have one set of law books and they (the committee members) have another and it is their books that are always right."

The controversy grew out of suggestions by committee members that the county should have acted before May 1, the start of the fiscal year, while the majority of the council held that the authority to name committee members rests with the council and that the mayor has authority only to select the chairman.

Points to Deadline
"I waited until the second meeting in May, and you came up with nothing, so I named the committees. It's too late for you to do anything now," Mayor Farney stated.

Boyd challenged the May 1 deadline, saying it was not specified in the city code. He

Council Awards GC Storm Water Sewer Contract

'Showdown' on GC Committees Looms next Week

A showdown over appointment of Granite City council committees is predicted for next Monday night's session. This week's Monday night meeting saw 13 aldermen vote in a selection of committees, ignoring those named by Mayor Farney last week.

The council last week deferred action on the mayor's committee appointments; and on Monday night, the mayor declared the council's move to name the committees to be out of order.

Which side will prevail is expected to become known next Monday night during the showdown predicted by Alderman Boyd.

The mayor contended the council should have acted before May 1, the start of the fiscal year, while the majority of the council held that the authority to name committee members rests with the council and that the mayor has authority only to select the chairman.

S. M. Wilson & Co. to Start Initial Phases In Two Weeks

Construction is expected to be started in two weeks on the $3,300,000 storm water drainage system in the older sections of Granite City.

Tentative award of a $3,008,900 construction contract to S. M. Wilson & Co., a local firm, was made during Monday night's council session.

Official signing of the contract will take place after written acceptance is received from the Housing & Urban Development agency in Chicago. Confirmation was made by telephone earlier Monday.

In calling for the award of the contract, Alderman Bartosik, chairman of the Special Sewer committee, noted that with savings in construction items and interest from the investment of bond issue funds, the city should have ample funds to complete the project as designed.

Reviewing the financial picture, Bartosik combined the figure on the storm sewers and the sanitary sewer project that now is under construction in North Granite and will be carried out in scattered areas of the city that are without sanitary sewers.

Financial Breakdown

The $1,500,000 grant of federal funds from HUD is being applied to both projects, along with a $1,855,000 general obligation bond issue for the storm water lines and a $150,000 rev-

MEMORIAL DAY • MAY 30

HONORING OUR NATION'S HEROES

Services Tomorrow at City Hall in GC and Venice-Madison Legion

The traditional Memorial Day parade will be missing in the Quad-Cities this year, but special services tomorrow honoring American war dead will have even deeper significance to many local families who have lost sons, husbands and fathers in the Vietnam War.

Nine have died since last year's observance, including three local paratroopers killed Nov. 20 on Hill 875 at Dak To, and the Vietnam War's latest casualty, Army Specialist Five Gerald Lee Elliott, 22, whose wounds are expected to take today.

For the third year, local patriotic organizations will pay special tribute to the memory of Quad-City servicemen killed in Vietnam who join the list of Americans who died for their country in the Spanish-American War, world wars I and II and the Korean War.

Sixteen local youths have given their lives in action against hostile forces in Vietnam, two died in helicopter crashes while training for overseas duty, and one was lost from a naval vessel in the Mediterranean Sea.

The servicemen are—Marine Private First Class Robert E. Emery, 20, Army Private First Class Gene E. Chepley, 20, Army Specialist/Four David L. Fisher, 21,

Capt. John B. Causey, U. S. Air Force, 28, Marine Private First Class Loren E. Bradley, 22, Navy Airman Frank Leonard Canlon, 20,

Marine Private First Class James L. Nash, 19, Staff Sergeant Ralph R. Justice, U. S. Army, 34, Warrant Officer Candidate Kenneth Miller, U. S. Army, 20, Army Private First Class James Ray Dowdy, 19,

Marine Private First Class Joe C. Leutenegger, 20, Army Specialist/Four Richard Shilt, 19, Marine Corporal Richard John Glebe, 19, Army Private First Class William C. Hinkle, 20,

Army Sergeant Michael E. Adams, 19, Army Private First Class Richard N. Kimball, 24, Marine Corporal Blaise Magyar, 11, 22,

Army Private Donnell Bell, 18, Army Specialist/Five Gerald Lee Elliott, 22, Special Memorial Day services will be held tomorrow at 9 a.m. on the lawn of the city hall in Granite City and at 11 a.m. at the Venice-Madison American Legion on Broadway in Venice.

For the 33rd year, the Granite City services will be sponsored by Sarah Jane McEvers, Tent 90, Daughters of Union Veterans.

Starting promptly at 9 a.m. with posting of the colors by Boy Scout Troop 21, the program will include a moment of silent prayer and reading of the DUV Prayer by the club chaplain.

A quartet of Granite City high school students will sing "Tenting Tonight on the Old Camp Grounds," and the assemblage will be invited to join in singing "God Bless America." Other selections will include "Let There Be Peace and Prayer," The Lord's Prayer and Taps.

Local Attorney Morris B. Chapman will give the principal address and wreaths will be placed at the Memorial Stone, erected some years ago by Tent 90 members. Fourth Ward Alderman Paul Rutledge will represent the city.

Among the organizations participating in tomorrow's tribute in addition to the DUV will be Quad-City Armvets Post 51 and Auxiliary; American Legion 113 and Auxiliary; Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1306 and Auxiliary; Gold Star Mothers; Quad-City Navy Mothers Unit 890; Armvets Post 167 and Auxiliary; Disabled American Veterans Chapter 53 and Auxiliary; Spanish American War Veterans; Daughters of the American Revolution and Grand Army of the Republic.

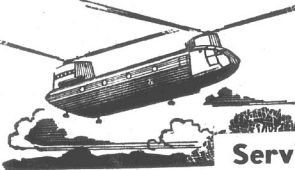

Venice Legion Service
The Venice ceremony will be held at 11 a.m. under the auspices of Venice-Madison American Legion Post 397, will include an address by Miss Dorothy Hinson, Departmental Chaplain of the Eight and Forty.

Mrs. Stella Bone, president of Post 397 Auxiliary, will place a wreath on the ceremonial grounds, fronting the legion building, in memory of the war dead and a wreath will be dedicated by Gold Star Mothers of the area.

A brief religious service will be conducted and the Venice high school band will provide appropriate music. Kenneth Hinson, Venice-Madison Legion adjutant, is in charge of arrangements.

Five Drivers Arrested, Police Use Radar Unit

Five drivers were charged with speeding Tuesday afternoon as traffic division police operated radar units on various city streets. They are: Dorothy M. Smith, Caseyville, Louis E. Kelen, 3325 Village Lane, Thomas E. Campbell, 2010 Beckwith street, Madison; Barry D. Mahurin, 4129 Division street, and Clyde E. Stephens, 2923 Cayuga street.

No State Directive
Capt. E. J. Toffant, district commander of the Illinois State Highway police in this district said he never had been notified by state police headquarters to stop refuse trucks coming into Illinois from Missouri.
Asked by a committee member if the state police would halt trucks from dumping trash brought over from Missouri if they received a state directive, Toffant replied:

"Brother, would we!"
He added the practice could be stopped in two days if he received an enforcement order.

Scroggins said following the hearing that he had protested the committee's "discourtesy" in a letter directed yesterday to the committee generally and to Sen. Krasowski and Rep. Meyer specifically.

In the letter Scroggins referred the committee members to specific sections of the Illinois law concerning dumping of out-of-state trash in Illinois landfills.

That section of the statute, Scroggins said, stipulates out-of-state trash may not be less the landfills meet all regulations and have proper permits. The law, he emphasized, does not flatly prohibit the dumping of trash in Illinois.

Courthouse, Others To Close on Friday

The Madison county courthouse at Edwardsville, along with several other public offices, will remain closed through Friday for an extended holiday beginning with Memorial Day tomorrow and ending Monday morning.
Other offices that will be closed tomorrow, Friday and through the weekend include the Illinois State Employment Service office in Granite City and the Illinois Drivers' Licensing Examining office, also in Granite City.

Officials in the city hall here will reopen Friday for regular hours. The Granite City Army Depot also will operate as usual on Friday as will the post offices in the Quad-City area. Regular mail deliveries will be resumed Friday and Saturday.

Sulphur Pollution Less Here; Dust Up

Sulphur compounds and suspended pollutants showed a decline in the Granite City area in 1967, below 1966 levels, but dustfall pollution increased by about 18%, the Illinois Bureau of Air Pollution Control reported yesterday.

Measurements gathered from the state's air sampling stations showed the sulphur compound decrease in the Granite City area, as well as East St. Louis, but showed dustfall in the Quad-Cities increased from 63.7 tons per square mile per month in 1966 to 73.5 tons in 1967.
The highest average concentration of sulphur compounds throughout the state was recorded at the East St. Louis sewage plant monitoring station, while the highest average reading for dustfall was at the East St. Louis city hall station, according to the report.

Amusement License Enforcement Planned

The Granite City police department will begin enforcement of ordinances pertaining to amusement licenses and fees starting June 17, Police Chief Ronald Veizer announced today. Enforcement previously was conducted by the city inspector.

The ordinances cover pool tables, billiard tables, pin ball machines, juke boxes and other devices.
The city inspector said that on most coin operated devices, the owner of the business where the machines are located is responsible for obtaining the licenses.

Most fees are $5 per year for each device, while juke boxes and pin ball machines are $10 per year. Licenses are available at the office of the city clerk from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.

First Game for Legion Baseball Team Saturday

The American Legion Post 113 baseball team, coached by Bill Turpenoff, will begin its 1968 season Saturday evening with a road exhibition game against Edwardsville starting at 8 o'clock at LeClaire field.

The league season does not officially start until next Wednesday, June 5, when the Granite City team will be at Alton for a 6 p.m. contest.

Local fans will get their first look at this year's team on Friday, June 7, at 6 p.m. Wilson Park diamond No. 1 as Post 113 entertains Fairmont City.

This is expected to be a rebuilding year for Granite City, which has only six players back from last season. But there are "good prospects" among the younger team members.

The heart of the pitching staff will be returnees Don Rains, Steve Lengel and Jim Becker. Relieving will be Jeff Boyles, who is regarded as a "very promising young player" from Granite City high school, and Wally Goff of Assumption high school in East St. Louis. Back-up men on the staff will be Roger Belah, who is a returnee, and Dave Evans, also impressive in initial workouts.

Infielders will be Walter Schmitt, Gary Simpson, Rich Logan, Rick Fosselock, Mike McGovern and Roger Laws. Outfielder will be Bob Levey, Jeff Jones and Mike Dochwat.

Coach Turpenoff reports that his 18-player roster is filled for the season.

Teams in the Legion circuit this year will include Edwardsville, Alton, Collinsville, Bellevue, Dupe, East St. Louis and Fairmont City.

The season will run from June 5 to July 31. August will be reserved for playoff competition, leading to the national finals on Sept. 3.

It is expected that Alton and Edwardsville will be the strongest teams in the league. Granite City will not have to wait long to find out, since it will play those squads in its first two outings.

99 Runs, 120 Hits in 3 Men's Softball Games

A total of 99 runs crossed home plate Monday evening at Wilson Park as Midtown Pharmacy beat Coachette 14-3 in the opener, followed by Local 16 beating Tony and Joe's 2-2 and finally Jacobmeyers' beating VFW 41-10.

The 35 and Over slow pitch softball league didn't have its last out until 10:45 p.m.

Jack Scarborough, Dick Stanton, Ed Keinagel and Ray Hadley homered for Midtown; Cotton Singler homered for Local 16; and Dick Kruff homered for Jacobmeyers'. Midtown garnered 14 hits for winning pitcher Paul Schuler, who scattered 11 opposing hits. Paul Gans was the losing hurler.

Tony and Joe's was the losing team in its last game, as its team pounded out 34 against Paul Thompson and Frank Durko.

VFW had 10 hits to its opponents' 42 safeties.

All games scheduled for Wednesday were rained out Monday.

Park Baseball Parade, Ceremonies Saturday

Granite City park district boys' baseball usually gets started each year with the annual parade occurring before opening games, but the reverse has proved true this year.

The park district tried to follow suit this year, but has been unsuccessful in two attempts, one being rained out and the other postponed because of Armed Forces Day.

Officials to attend dignitaries expected to be in this year's parade include Sixth Ward Alderman Richard Fry, substituting for Mayor Tarmey, who will be out of town; Rev. Carl Johnson of Peace Lutheran Church, president of the Quad-Cities Ministerial Association; Dr. Eugene W. Walton, Granite City school board president; Howard W. Katsberg, Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce president; Chief of Police Ronald Veizer; Col. Charles E. Hoskin, commander, of Col. David Fox, deputy commander, of the Granite City Army Depot; and Fire Chief E. J. Fronberger.

Following the parade and ceremonies, baseball games originally scheduled for last Saturday will be played.

To aid in financing equipment, uniforms, insurance and other team costs, players this year are selling auto window decals.

I-C Nines Will Cross Division Lines Sunday

The Blue Division is rapidly establishing itself as the class of the Inter-City Baseball League, and the two local teams will hope to further prove this point when they tangle with Red Division squads at 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

Granite City Steel Credit Union of the Blue Division will host the Polish-American War Veterans of East St. Louis at Wilson Park, while Mercer of Granite City, also in the Blue Division, will visit Collinsville to meet the Moller team.

Standings show that Blue Division nines have gained four more victories than defeats thus far in the 1968 season. Red Division teams have lost four more times than they have won.

Mercer One Game Out - In the Blue Division, Pochontas and East Alton lead with 4-1 records and Mercer is one game back at 3-2. Credit Union has a 1-4 mark.

Red Division won-loss records reveal that Collinsville is on top with 4-2. Maryville has 2-2, East St. Louis 2-4 and Troy 0-4.

In games other than those involving Quad-City teams this Sunday, Pochontas will entertain Maryville and East Alton will play at Troy.

Winless Since First Game - Credit Union in its game here Sunday afternoon will be trying for its first conquest since opening day, when it edged Troy 8-4. East St. Louis so far has beaten Troy and Collinsville.

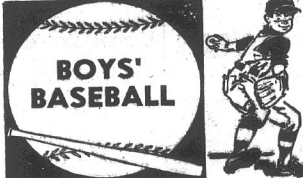

Mercer has beaten East St. Louis, Maryville and the Credit Union; its game against Troy last weekend was postponed.

Collinsville began by capturing its four games but now has a two-game losing streak which Mercer will attempt to extend.

Fast Pitch Softball Team to Open Season

The Granite City Steel Credit Union softball team will open its season at 7:30 tonight at Wood River in a fast-pitch doubleheader and at 7 p.m. Saturday it will entertain Moydell of St. Louis for a doubleheader at Wilson Park.

Moydell, which plays in the St. Louis Muni AA league will be one of the teams in the park district's Fourth of July tournament here this year. Credit Union players include members of all four 1967 local teams and the current squad represents an effort to keep fast-pitch softball alive in Granite City.

Granite City Park League Games are played at 6 p.m., Wilson Park; Madison-Venice Khoury League at 6 p.m.; Nameoiki-Pontoon Little League at 6 p.m.; Mitchell Khoury League at 6:45 p.m. at the Athletic field. Game times apply to Monday through Friday; Saturday times will be indicated.

S-West Conference Member Issue in Fall

Possibility of rejoining of the Southwestern Conference at its Sept. 16 session has arisen with East St. Louis Supt. Boyd Mitchell's threat to withdraw that school unless East St. Louis Lincoln is admitted. Other members are Granite City, Belleville West, Edwardsville, Collinsville, Alton and Wood River.

In addition to Lincoln, the conference has rejected Cahokia and Belleville for the season. Several schools are on various occasions. Lincoln is under Illinois High School Association investigation for several years, including alleged intimidation which succeeded in reversing a mile relay ruling, giving Lincoln rather than Alton the district track championship.

Council Ok's Federal Youth Program to Beautify City

Mrs. Melba Walker is in ICU at Local Hospital

Mrs. Melba (Storey) Walker of Troy, Ill., formerly of Granite City, is a patient in the intensive care unit at St. Elizabeth hospital, where she was taken, Friday night, by ambulance after being stricken at home with a heart attack.

Mrs. Walker is president of the Cooks and Waitress Local 461 and a part time employee of the Ellis Lodge 1065.

A summer-long clean up and beautification program in Granite City through employment of about 50 youths under the federal Neighborhood Youth Program was authorized Monday night by Granite City council members.

The aldermen approved a request by Mayor Partney for $1000 to be allocated to buy tools and shovels and small tools for the youth workers who would be paid $1.25 an hour by the federal government.

The mayor explained that while eight to 10 young people have been hired under the federally-subsidized program in the past two summers, he is planning for a crew of 50 this summer.

Selection would be handled by the Coordinated Youth Services and would be in accordance with federal requirement that the individuals be from low-income families.

"This will not only improve the appearance of the city, but also will give 50 young people an opportunity for jobs now that school is closed. This year we can go for clean up, paint work and fix up, and the crews also can aid individuals who are unable to do clean up work around their homes," the mayor explained.

In the past summers when the smaller state has worked around the animal shelter and other city buildings, the mayor said, he "bumped" tools and funds to get the jobs done.

With the expansion of the work force, he added, the city should supply these funds. "We can use these people to beautify the entrances to the city and for many of those jobs that no one wants to do."

Adult supervision also is to be sought, Partney continued. Applications for the jobs are to be made through the CYS office.

Driving Charge Filed

Michael L. Reed, 2955 Manley avenue, was charged with careless driving at 9 p.m. Monday at Nameoki and Ponton roads.

Grand Jury Meets After Judge Lewis Suffers Stroke

The Madison county grand jury was to complete a three-day session today after hearing available criminal cases.

The jury was impeded Monday morning by Chief Circuit Judge James O. Monroe after Associate Judge Austin Lewis suffered a fatal stroke in the courthouse.

Judge Lewis was preparing to call the jurors and was conferring with State's Atty. Leo Scroggins outside the judge's chambers in the courthouse when he became ill.

Scroggins said the judge's speech became slurred and he began to sway. They returned to the judge's chambers where Judge Lewis sat down. Scroggins said the judge's speech became more incoherent, and he had a bailiff summon Dr. Henry Malench, an Edwardsville physician.

The judge was taken from the courthouse on a stretcher, still conscious, after Dr. Malench reported that the judge appeared to have suffered a cerebral stroke with possible hemorrhaging and was in serious condition. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital here and then to St. Mary's Hospital, Clayton, Mo.

Judge Lewis had been scheduled to sit on the bench in the Granite City division of circuit court starting next month, switching with Associate Judge Scroggins starting next month. Granite City division may remain closed temporarily.

Scroggins said he was presenting criminal cases to the grand jury as they became ready, but that he did not know when the grand jury would present its report. Among 23 members of the jury is George W. Korjak, 1427 Grand avenue.

National Civil Defense 'Show Coach' to be Here

The National Civil Defense "Show Coach," an out-of-doors mobile display, will visit the Quad-City area Friday through Tuesday, it was announced today by Granite City Civil Defense Director Victor H. Koenig, who invited all area residents to inspect the unique exhibit.

The 33x15-foot traveling unit will be open for inspection from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Friday and Saturday at Bellemeor Village shopping center parking area, near Tri-City Grocery, and from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. Monday and Tuesday, at the Edison avenue side of the First Granite City National Bank parking lot.

Koenig said the display, based on the theme, "You and Survival," provides the viewer with a comprehensive picture of the coordination between an alert system and survival procedures.

The civil defense director noted the mobile unit is transported by U.S. Army personnel, who furnish routine maintenance and take care of technical problems concerning operation of the exhibit.

During its stop-over here, the unit will be manned by qualified Granite City civil defense personnel who will describe the functions of the exhibit to the public, Koenig explained. He pointed out the display is a joint cooperative venture between national CD authorities and the military.

Local CD volunteers also will distribute pamphlets, entitled "In Time of Emergency," released by the U.S. Office of Civil Defense within the past two months. The director said the literature is considered the most up-to-date "citizens handbook" and contains information on survival techniques to be used in event of a nuclear attack or natural disaster.

Poles in Sidewalk Will be Removed

Utility poles in the new sidewalk along the south Nameoki road improvement will be removed in the near future, Mayor Partney reported to Granite City council members Monday night.

The mayor said he had met with representatives of the utilities, state highway department and the contractor earlier Monday and learned that a mixup in work orders caused the problem.

During the conference, the mayor also reviewed the drainage problems along the Route 151 right-of-way through West Granite.

"We're compiling now a list of catch basins that were covered, and it is to be presented to the state highway department so the matter can be corrected," he informed the council.

Bike Chains to be Provided at Pool

Chains will be supplied to bicyclists riding to swim in the Wilson Park pool this summer, but the cyclists must furnish their own locks, it was announced Tuesday by Park Supt. Harold Brown.

The chains will be on the racks in time for tomorrow's opening of the pool. "We hope this will halt the wave of bicycle thefts that have occurred in the past," Brown added.

State Board Promises Aid In Curbing Bad-Taste Water

Speedier action in tracing foul-tasting pollutants that enter the Mississippi River above the water intake of East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. was assured by the state Sanitary Water Board.

In a letter to the Granite City council Monday night answering the protests filed by the city earlier this month, C. W. Klassen, technical secretary for the state board, said his personnel is making an investigation in this area and urging upstream refineries to improve treatment facilities.

Klassen added that the state board now has an office in East St. Louis and should be able to more quickly trace and determine sources of pollution.

While the exact source of the bad-taste early this month was not pinpointed, the pollutant was determined to be phenol, either from refineries or possibly the Wood River municipal sewage treatment plant.

Mayor Partney said officials of the water company are arranging a meeting for next Monday with representatives of refineries. "The water company is trying to do the job of preventing the bad taste from happening again," Partney added.

Extension of Intake

Alderman Robertson asked if the water company had any report on his request to extend its intake at the Chouteau Island plant out into the river to get better water.

Mayor Partney said he had been advised the cost would be prohibitive.

"That's not a satisfactory answer. We need more details. Let the committee proceed to get the information and give it to the council," Robertson stated.

Alderman Fry suggested the city write letters to the refineries in the Wood River area, calling attention to the problems here when there is a phenol spill.

GC Oks Bids for Sidewalk Repairs And Weed Cutting

While no funds for sidewalk and curb replacement have yet been budgeted for the current fiscal year, the Granite City council proceeded Monday night to award a contract on a lone bid submitted by Thomas Skerle of 3332 Willow avenue.

Skerle bid $4.24 per lineal foot for replacement of curbs and gutters and his bids for new and replacement sidewalks were 73 cents per square foot for four-inch thickness and 85 cents for six-inch thickness at driveways.

Clarence Whitford was the only person to submit a bid for weed cutting, and council members voted approval of his contract price of $3.25 for a 50x25-foot lot. The alderman called for an immediate start of the weed cutting program.

Whitford is to cut weeds on city property and also on vacant lots. The city will bill the owners of the lots.

Will Pump Pond

In miscellaneous business, the council authorized the street department to pump a large pond of water off the YMCA soccer league playing field at St. Elizabeth school.

Alderman Johnson, who made the request, said there is a catch basin nearby.

Referred to the Finance committee and comptroller for study was a proposal for renewal of the city's workmen's compensation and liability insurance policies submitted by The Bond Men Co., Inc., St. Louis.

Alderman Robertson called for contacts with local insurance firms before any renewal is authorized. He was told by Mayor Partney that about two years ago when a local firm cancelled the city's workmen's compensation and liability policies, that no others would submit proposals.

The liability policy, which covers city buildings and parkways, is to be reviewed by the committee and comptroller. Alderman Rutledge said a new lease proposal has been received from American Steel Foundries for a tract at the southwest end of its property south of Niedringhaus avenue in Lincoln Place. The lease is to be studied by City Atty. Allen before being presented to the council.

The alderman authorized the employment of Dr. Irwin H. Parrill, professor in the SIU-SW chemistry department, to serve as technical secretary for the City Air Pollution Control Board in the summer in the absence of Prof. Irwin Rutledge. Prof. Parrill is to receive a $100 monthly retainer and $10 an hour for additional time.

Public Asked to Attend Memorial Day Ceremonies

An invitation and appeal for "organizations and public-spirited citizens" to attend tomorrow's Memorial Day services at the city hall in Granite City was issued today by Mrs. Sylvia Turner, a member of Daughters of Union Veterans Tent 90 and a DUJ national special aide.

"Religious ceremonies dedicated to departed loved ones have been observed for centuries," Mrs. Turner commented. "Our national holiday is based on a specific sequence of events. Our forefathers did not win the American wars by letting George do it. It takes cooperation to achieve any goal."

"Regardless of the type of Memorial Day program we may decide to present, we are invariably faced with the problem of the usual 'faithful few' having to bear the major portion of the work and the responsibility of organizing and bringing to reality such a worthy program."

"The encouragement and cooperation of every civic and patriotic organization in the Quad-Cities and the assistance of interested individuals is essential to the successful and fitting observance of this day."

"We trust that in 1968 and the years to follow, more of the organizations and public-spirited citizens will make themselves available to lend a helping hand to the faithful few. Such a gesture of good will and display of active Americanism will be greatly appreciated."

"In today's modern world, we are so engrossed in the material things that we are prone to forget the proud heritage that brave men died for us to inherit. As Americans, it is our duty to preserve, and to pass on to those who follow, this proud heritage; to do less would be to fail those who have gone before."

"To instill in our youth the meaning of true Americanism, to give them the strength of principle and integrity, to give them the will to fight for the cause that today is just as important as it was a hundred years ago, is a duty that is not easy, not simple to fulfill. It takes constant effort."

"While many may accuse us of just 'flag waving,' it is time that someone holds high our flag and proudly waves it."

Members of Sarah Jane McEvers Tent 90 trust the citizens of this area will show their patriotism by joining with them in observing Decoration Day on Thursday at the city hall, at 9 a.m.

"When Gen. John A. Logan, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, designated May 30, 1868, as a day for decorating graves of fallen comrades, he expressed hope that it would be observed from year to year while a survivor of the war remains to honor the memory of the departed."

"All have since passed on, but the annual observance to be held here Thursday has been broadened to honor those of all American wars."

Makes Turn, Collides

While attempting to make a right turn, an auto driven by Cecelia Kleinschmidt, 2306a Delmar avenue, was involved in a collision with a car driven by Pauline Borchers, Rural Route One, at 11:15 p.m. Monday at Pantoon road and Washburn avenue.

"In observance of Memorial Day in each year since 1890, the president of the U. S. issues a 'prayer of peace' which is solemnized in each locality at 11 a.m."

"Memorial Day serves a dual objective—honoring the sacrifice of those who fought to maintain freedom, and dedicating the living to hold fast to the ideals which make this nation worth fighting for."

Sgt. Ketner, who is being assigned to a replacement unit in the Saigon area, was graduated from Granite City high school. The serviceman received basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and Advanced Infantry Training at Fort Polk, La. He was graduated from Non-Commissioned

Sheriff to Aid Eagle Park Group

Madison County Sheriff George Musso explained the responsibilities of special sheriff's deputies and clarified the legal limits of their authority to 25 Eagle Park residents, who met with him Monday at the courthouse.

The Eagle Park delegation, led by Eddie Salmond, president of the Eagle Park Improvement Association, and Clinton Thornton, vice-president, sought clarification of a deputy's duties following a recent incident in which a resident of the unincorporated area was arrested on

Sheriff Musso advised the group that a special deputy is empowered to apprehend any person violating the law. He also agreed to furnish additional enforcement in Eagle Park, in an effort to get rid of dragsters and vandals who are plaguing the area, Salmond said.

In a separate meeting with county zoning administrator, Jack Clifford, also held Monday at the courthouse, the delegation was told help would be provided to eliminate abandoned and dilapidated dwellings. Salmond said an official from his office inspected the area yesterday and found 15 unoccupied buildings in various stages of deterioration and decay.

He said the request to the county for aid results from a clean-up campaign, initiated in Eagle Park several weeks ago by the improvement group. A trash collection service, operated by the association under the direction of Leroy Harper, is now in effect, Salmond said, with collections made each Friday and Saturday. He noted that the service was made possible through donation of a truck by the Venice park district.

Salmond also reported progress in equipping and clearing Johnson Park, a tract of land adjacent to the community donated by Joseph Steele of Granite City. He said a baseball diamond is now being constructed and playground equipment was recently installed with a $240 contribution from the congregation of St. John United Church of Christ.

Council Hoping to Speed Improvements, Clarify Financial Outlook—Robertson

Committees were formed by a vote of 13 Granite City aldermen Monday night primarily to break what they regard as the logjam on municipal improvements.

Seventh Ward Alderman R. E. "Mickey" Robertson told the Press-Record yesterday.

Other potential gains he listed are wider understanding of city financial information, committee representation for a larger cross-section of the city council, and improved utilization of the ability and knowledge of various aldermen.

Robertson, who is to serve along with Aldermen Clyde Boyd and Charles Moellen on the council-appointed finance committee, said the group hopes to meet soon with President E. A. Karandjoff of the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank and President Paul Lichtenberger of the First Granite City National Bank.

The bankers are to be asked to name a third member to serve with them and pinpointing how much can be devoted to pending projects. The plan was announced a few weeks ago and Robertson said it apparently has not been pushed by the previous finance committee proposed by the mayor.

Street, Walk Vetoes Cited

Asserting that "substantial funds" appear to be available, Robertson charged that consistent vetoes of special improvements have deterred needed street, sidewalk and curb construction and indirectly raised city costs in settling injury suits.

"If we could have proceeded with many of the improvements voted by the council during the past three years, 70% of our streets and walks would be in excellent condition today and we wouldn't be getting sued over so many falls and accidents," he commented.

"It is the hope of the new finance committee to achieve a free flow of information between officials and to the public on the present and future status of each fund and on progress made in developing the budget. Until now, nearly all of the budget information has been unavailable to most of the council."

Robertson stressed that the actions being initiated by the council majority do not involve "personalities" but rather are considered essential in order for each elected council member to fulfill his obligations to the public.

Report Within Month

He said he hopes that a financial report can be issued to the public "within 30 days."

The 1968-69 city appropriation and tax levy are to be adopted this summer.

Robertson added that council-created committees can function legally because mayor-appointed committees had not been confirmed by the aldermen for the new fiscal year that began May 1.

In addition to finance, the council set up committees this week on ordinance, street and alley, police, fire and water, sanitary, traffic, zoning and planning, city building, air pollution, special sewer, pollution plant, human relations and lighting.

MORE ABOUT

lots already have been received by her office. Absentee balloting opened May 13 and will continue through June 8. Because the date falls on Saturday, Miss Hotz said, her office will be open until noon for absentee balloting in person. Last day to make application by mail for an absentee ballot is June 8.

Miss Hotz said preparations for the election by her office are nearing completion and distribution of official ballots and election materials will start Monday.

Miss Hotz and her election staff will distribute the ballots throughout the week, with the material being delivered to a judge of every precinct in the county. They will include 32 precincts in Granite City, 11 in Venice township, seven in Nameoki township and four in Chouteau township.

Registration for the primary is expected to reach at least 115,000 voters in Madison county this year as the result of intense interest in recent registration activities conducted by the county clerk's office. Miss Hotz estimated about 5000 new registration and record changes were received by deputy registrars prior to the May 13 registration deadline. This may be reduced slightly because of duplications of other factors, Miss Hotz said. The county's total registration prior to opening the registration drive was slightly more than 111,000.

To Elect Trustees
In addition to nominating Democratic and Republican candidates for national, state, district and county offices in the June 11 primary, voters also will ballot in an uncontested election of two members of the county Board of School Trustees. Voters will receive a small, separate white ballot to vote in this election. Democratic primary ballots will be pink and the Republican ballot will be blue.

Contests in the Democratic primary involve the races for state's attorney, and corner at the county level, for the levee district board of trustees, delegates to the Democratic National nominating convention and for state representative of the 35th district, at the district level.

Highlights the Democratic races is the contest for election of two Democratic state representatives of the 35th district which is made up of Granite City, Nameoki, Venice, Chouteau, Collinsville, Wood River and Alton townships.

Eight in Race
Eight candidates are in the field for the two representative posts, including incumbent

State Rep. Leland J. Kennedy of Alton who is seeking re-election. The representative race was thrown open early this year by announcement of incumbent State Rep. Lloyd "Curly" Harris of Granite City that he would not seek re-election this year.

While Kennedy has the backing of the Madison-Venice Democratic organization which controls the County Democratic Central Committee, no endorsement for the second spot has been made publicly.

In addition to Rep. Kennedy, candidates include Horace Calvo, Granite City attorney; Robert L. Ford, Wood River supervisor; Harry A. Briggs, Nameoki township supervisor; Terry L. Francis, Granite City attorney; James E. Walker, Granite City; David P. Crivello, Alton, and Sam P. Drenovac, Mitchell.

Since the number of state representatives to be elected by both the Democratic and Republican parties is determined by designations of representative committees of both parties prior to the primary, nomination in the primary is tantamount to election. This year two Democrat and two Republican state representatives are to be elected.

Already Elected
This means that incumbent Ralph Smith of Alton, now speaker of the Illinois House, will be automatically nominated and elected in the November general election. He is the only state representative candidate on the GOP ballot.

In the Democratic county campaign, incumbent State's Attorney Leon Scroggins and Attorney Coroner Leonard Davis, both of Granite City, are opposed in their bids for re-election. Both Scroggins and Davis are serving 12 appointment. Both have been endorsed by the County Democratic Central Committee, although these endorsements were opposed by a minority committee faction that contended these races should be left open because the officeholders were appointees. Scroggins is opposed by Wendell Darr, Edwardsville attorney who is seeking office for the first time, while Davis is opposed by two other candidates, Dr. Edward Mulvill of Alton and T. J. Burke, an Alton funeral director.

Other Democratic officeholders seeking re-election on the county ticket are unopposed. They include James P. Chapman, county recorder of deeds seeking re-election to a fourth term; John Kraynak of Granite City, county auditor seeking re-election to his fifth term; and William V. "Buck" Portell, incumbent circuit clerk bidding for his third term.

County candidates on the GOP ballot are without opposition for the primary balloting. They are Roland W. Griffith, Alton attorney seeking election as state's attorney; Charles Buras, Collinsville, Recorder of deeds; Pete E. Pachs, Alton, auditor; Robert G. Thomas, Granite City, coroner, and David E. John, Granite City, circuit clerk.

The Democrats have a four-way race for two trusteeships on the East Side Levee and Sanitary district board, a contest that also is related with a contest for two Democratic delegate posts since both involve opposition to the Madison-Venice organization.

William "Mike" Ebersold of Venice and Joseph Grant of Granite City, both incumbent Democratic members of the levee board, are seeking re-election, but are opposed by two other candidates, Paul Zupan, business representative of the Bricklayers' Union, and Louis Postawko of Granite City. Ebersold, a long-time associate of the Madison-Venice Democratic organization, and Grant, have the backing of the organization.

Zupan is aligned politically with Dick H. Mudge of Edwardsville, who is opposing John E. Lee, mayor of Venice and an organization leader, for election as delegate to the National Democratic nominating convention, and with Richard Allen who is a Democratic candidate for alternate delegate.

Two Posts Open
While two delegate posts are to be filled in the 24th Congressional District, one is to represent Madison county and the other to represent St. Clair county. Since Dr. Lee and Mudge are both candidates in Madison county, the opposition for one of the posts lies between the candidates. The St. Clair county candidate is Monroe Fling of East St. Louis.

Dr. Lee is aligned with Jerry L. Lamar of Alton who opposes Allen as a candidate for the Madison county alternate delegate spot.

Postawko is running as an independent candidate in the levee board contest. Levee board members will be elected this year within their own basis instead of on a district basis as in previous years. Prior to the 1968 primary, levee board candidates were elected by voters of both Madison and St. Clair counties.

In the U. S. Senatorial and state elections, the Democratic Party is selling in the primary net month. An unopposed candidate, endorsed by the state Democratic organization will be automatically nominated in the primary.

Clark Heads Ticket
Heading the state ticket is William G. Clark, now Illinois attorney general, as candidate for U. S. Senator. Samuel H. Shapiro of Kankakee who became governor of Illinois last week after former governor Otto Kerner assumed a federal judgeship, is the only Democratic candidate for governor. Other candidates on the state ticket without opposition are Paul Simon of Troy, candidate for lieutenant governor; Paul Powell of Venice, incumbent secretary of state and candidate for re-election to that office; Michael J. Howlett of Springfield, candidate for re-election as state auditor; Francis S. Lorenz of Chicago, now director of the Illinois Department of Public Works, for attorney general, and Fanning G. Jones, East St. Louis, for clerk of the Illinois Supreme Court.

On the Republican side of the ballot, however, a large number of candidates are in the running. Veteran U. S. Senator Everett M. Dirksen has opposition from two candidates, Howard J. Doyle of Chicago and Roy C. Johnson of Calumet Park, while a total of eight candidates are seeking the gubernatorial nomination.

Headlining the governors GOP race thus far is Richard B. Ogilvie of Northfield, now chairman of the Cook County Board of Commissioners and one of the leading Republicans ever to successfully oppose the political organization of Democratic Chicago Mayor Richard Daley and John H. Altorf, Peoria industrialist. Both of these candidates have contested active state-wide campaigns.

Seek Governor's Post
Other candidates for governor on the GOP ballot include Lar "America First" Daly of Chicago; Alford "Bulldog" Hammond, Justice; William G. Stratton of Chicago, former Illinois governor, and S. Thomas Patton, Wayne.

Two candidates are in the race for nomination as lieutenant governor on the GOP ballot—Robert A. Dwyer of Winnetka and G. Robert Johnson of Chicago.

The Republican contest for nomination as secretary of state involves three candidates—Robert Campbell of Chicago, Donald D. Carpenter of East Moline and Brian B. Duff of Winnetka.

Candidates are bidding for the GOP nomination as state auditor. They are Terrell Clarke of West Springfield, William C. Harris of Pontiac, Wesley W. Olson of Quincy and Earl C. Ott of Chicago.

Edward P. Kave of Chicago and William J. Scott of Evans-ton are opposing candidates for the Republican nomination as attorney general, while three candidates are seeking the one GOP nomination for clerk of the Supreme Court. They are Louise Emerson of Chicago, Mrs. Earle Benjamin Searcy of Springfield, the incumbent, and Justin Taft of Rochester.

Clerk Candidates
The only Republican candidate without opposition is David F. Mallett of Troy, who is to be nominated as candidate for clerk of the Appellate Court in the fifth district. The Democratic candidate for this post, also unopposed, is James R. McLaughlin of Mount Vernon.

There is no opposition to the re-election of Carl Monroe of Collinsville and G. A. Shaffer of Jarvis township as members of the Madison county Board of School trustees. Monroe has been a member of the board since it was established by state law in 1933.

The board consists of seven members elected in successive years to three-year terms. The board trustees has jurisdiction over the boundary lines of all school districts in the county, rules on all issues of annexation or detachment and handles all real estate holdings of the school districts. Homer Huber of Granite City is now chairman of the board.

The members are elected rather than nominated in the primary and meet on the first Monday in July to reorganize. Miss Hotz pointed out yesterday that persons who plan to vote an absentee ballot and wish to apply in person at her office in Edwardsville will receive assistance in filling out their applications which will be notarized without charge.

Precinct Committee Contests
As in all primary elections, Madison county voters also will elect precinct committees of both parties in each precinct of the county.

In the Democratic primary this year, contests have developed in five of the 32 precincts in Granite City, in four of the eleven Venice township precincts, in five of the seven Nameoki township precincts and in two of the four Chouteau township precincts.

Considerably less interest was shown by the Republicans in precinct committees posts during the filing period. There is only one contest for a GOP committee post in the Quad-City area. That is in Chouteau precinct 4 where incumbent Harold H. Cain is opposed by Harold Carson.

There are nine precincts in Granite City which have no Republican candidates for committee posts; five precincts in Venice township without candidates and three precincts in Nameoki township without candidates.

The group is the only Masonic team of its kind in this country.

Judge Lewis' Seat to Remain Vacant in County

The judicial seat of the late Associate Judge Austin Lewis will not be refilled, according to Chief Circuit Judge James O. Monroe Jr.

He said the judicial reform amendment passed in 1962 provided for only two associate judges for the county, but four had served because two circuit judges who were in office at the time also became associate judges. Judge Lewis died early Tuesday.

Backs into Parked Auto

An auto driven by Barbara Martin, 5204 Nameoki road, backed into the side of a parked auto on a lot at 3020 Madison avenue at 11:15 a.m. Tuesday, she reported at the police station.

Weather May Be OK For Swim Pool Openings

Youngsters are hoping for sun, sky tomorrow when four area swimming pools begin their 1968 summer operations and, early today, a cooperative forecast with the U.S. Weather Bureau promises fair weather with warming trends, possibly reaching 80 degrees, for the Memorial Day observance.

Opening day schedules at area swimming facilities are as follows:

Wilson Park pool — 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.; Paddlers Swim Club — 9 p.m.; Sunset Hill Country Club—noon until 8 p.m.; and Arlington Golf Club Pool—1 to 8 p.m.

Holiday Weekend

Tips for Boaters

Memorial Day weekend is considered the opening of the boating season in Illinois. According to data gathered by the U. S. Coast Guard over the last five years, collisions are the most common boating accident. William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Con-servation, urged all boaters to operate with caution this season.

The reason why collisions are so prevalent is that many boaters are not alert," Lodge said. "Automobiles have high-ways to travel on but boats can operate wherever the water is deep enough. One boat can dart into the path of another one in a split second. Generally, a boat will not respond to the hand on the controls as rapidly as an automobile will, and boats can-not be stopped as fast.

"Most people operate boats for pleasure. Nevertheless, a boat operator should recognize the limitations of his craft, and, above all, he should remain alert," Lodge concluded.

Firearms Law Still In Effect Despite Ruling

Federal firearms statutes remain in full force. The National Firearms Act has not been voided, and the possession of a gun which has been made or transferred in violation of this Act renders the possessor subject to prosecution.

This statement was made today by Jay G. Philpott, district attorney for the Internal Revenue for central and southern Illinois, who added, "The recent decision by the U. S. Supreme Court in the Hayes firearms case has been misinterpreted by some firearms dealers and others as relieving them of the requirements imposed by the National Firearms Act."

"In the Hayes case, the court held that the constitutional privilege against self-incrimination could be involved in a federal criminal charge brought under the National Firearms Act, for failing to register a firearm as possessing an unregistered firearm."

"The Supreme Court did not, in its decision, hold the National Firearms Act or any of its provisions to be unconstitutional. The underlying objective of the act is to prevent criminals from obtaining gangster-type weapons, such as guns and sawed-off shotguns."

Weapons which are covered by the National Firearms Act may be legally acquired and possessed subject to regulatory requirements. However, any such weapon which is not properly registered is contraband and subject to seizure, the IRS official said.

A person who possesses a gangster-type weapon is still subject to criminal penalties if it was, at any time, illegally made or transferred.

Records, Reports Required
The record-keeping and reporting obligations imposed on firearms dealers, manufacturers and importers by the National Firearms Act have in no way been altered by the Hayes decision. IRS will continue to conduct inspections of records to insure compliance with Federal law.

Occupational transfer and other uses imposed by the National Firearms Act remain in full force, it was emphasized. The Federal Firearms Act, a separate statute which regulates the interstate transportation of weapons, was not involved in the Hayes case and is not affected by the decision.

Big Problem
It takes half or our lives to learn who our friends are—and the other half to figure out ways to keep them.

Telephone Adapter for EKG Machine at Hospital's ICU

Sister Mary Thomas, administrator of St. Elizabeth Hospital, announced today the Intensive Care Unit of the hospital now has the capability of having electrocardiograms of their patients interpreted immediately even when a specialist is not present in the unit. 4.15% when held to maturity Higher interest on the Bonds you already own, too!

U.S. Savings Bonds are a better way to save than ever

Because now all Series E and Series H Bonds bought after December 1, 1965, will earn the new, higher interest rate of 4.15% when held to maturity. That's only 7 years for Series E—9 months quicker than before. All H Bond interest checks will be larger beginning in June 1966.

And your outstanding Bonds will earn more, too, from now on. So, you don't have to cash in your present Bonds to get the attractive new rate.

Ask about buying Bonds where you work or bank. For America's future. And yours.

"Today, none of us can remain aloof on the sidelines."

"Today, above all, is a time for all Americans to rededicate themselves to the spirit that animated the Minutemen of Concord—who serve as a symbol of the Savings Bond program. For today, as at the founding of our nation, it is freedom which is again at stake. Not all of us are called upon to fight in the jungles of Vietnam, but while our men are there, in the front line of a distant land, none of us can remain aloof on the sidelines. We must all do our share—in every way we can—to support our men in Vietnam. One sure way is open to all Americans through the Savings Bond program."

'Showdown'

quoted the code as stating the mayor can name committees only in the absence of direction by the council, with no deadline specified.

Written legal opinions from both sides are expected next Monday night.

The double-committee confusion came prior to the call for committee reports. As the mayor called upon the chairmen he had named, most replied "no report," or "nothing."

An exception was Alderman Bartoskiak, who was named to the Special Sewer Committee by both sides. His report on award of the contract for storm water sewer construction is on the front page of today's issue.

The Challenge
The mayor told the council he would continue to call upon the chairmen he named.

Boyd replied that he would vote "no" on the reports and would ask other council members to do the same.

In the heated, gavel-rapping argument over committees, Mayor Partney commented that he had heard of a 7 o'clock meeting in advance of the council session and that it was reported the city hall was being moved to 19th and State streets.

Boyd, who is in the Steelworkers office at 19th and State streets, remarked that he had attended a number of pre-council sessions under the last administration, and after the meeting added that the city attorney also has offices at 19th and State streets. Boyd declined to comment on any meeting at his office.

Vote by Aldermen
The aldermen voted for the lineup of committees presented by Alderman Robertson were Dallas, Moerlien, Bartoskiak, Whitmer, Boyd, Poulos, Green, Basarich, Nomm, Partney, Robertson, Dawes and Johnson. Opposed were Rutledge, Fry and Jarrett.

Preceding the argument over committees, Mayor Partney submitted the appointment of Edward Jureau of Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab engineering firm, Granite City, as public engineer for 30 days from May 31 to June 29.

Alderman Johnson contended the appointment would be a conflict of interest in that the engineer was aiding in the city's sewer's project. Partney pointed out the Lochner firm of Chicago is engineering the sewer project, but that Jureau is the consulting engineer for the sewerage treatment plant.

Moerlien repeated his request of last week for a legal opinion on appointment of an engineer whose contract has not been approved by the council. None was available.

Engineer Debate Stalled
At that point, Mayor Partney made an effort to relinquish the chair to Alderman Rutledge to get on the floor to debate the engineer issue.

Robertson called for a continuation of the regular order of business before such a debate, and in view of a council agreement without a vote, the mayor agreed.

Robertson then called for action on last week's deferral of the mayor's appointment of committees, saying the mayor was not utilizing the ability of the aldermen in his selections.

Mayor Partney stated his appointments would stand. "The mayor has a right to appoint. If the council wanted to do it then they should have named the committees prior to May 1."

Robertson said the council had agreed upon committees and was ready to submit them for approval. As he started to read, the mayor rapped him out of order.

"You're out of order. Will you kindly sit down," Partney told Robertson.

Decision Appealed
"I appeal your decision," the alderman replied.

After several urgings, Robertson was able to get a roll call. The vote was in his favor, 13-0-3.

"I refuse to recognize the motion by Robertson," the mayor announced.

Robertson replied that the council had recognized it, and he proceeded to read the list.

Committees selected by the council members follow:

Finance—Boyd, Robertson and Moerlien; Ordinance—Nomm, Poulos and Johnson; Street—Johnson, Partney and Basarich; Police—Whitmer, Rutledge and Fry; Fire and Water—Dawes, Poulos and Bartoskiak; Sanitary—Dallas, Green and Robertson; Traffic—Partney, Robertson and Poulos.

Zoning and Planning—Nomm, Rutledge and Jarrett; City Buildings—Dallas, Basarich and Whitmer; Air Pollution—Whitmer, Moerlien and Partney; Pollution Plant—Moerlien, Dawes and Green; Special Sewer—Bartoskiak, Green and Boyd; Lights—Basarich, Dawes and Green; and Human Relations—Rutledge, Jarrett and Fry.

While no chairmen were named, it was indicated the first alderman listed for each committee would be the chairman.

Mayor's Committees
The committees named last week by the mayor, specified the first alderman listed as chairman.

The mayor's selection follows:

Finance—Rutledge, Jarrett and Fry; Ordinance—Johnson, Bartoskiak and Dawes; Street—Nomm, Poulos and Bartoskiak; Police—Whitmer, Jarrett and Robertson; Fire and Water—Fry, Poulos and Dawes; Sanitary—Jarrett, Nomm and Rutledge; Traffic—Boyd, Robertson and Dawes.

Planning and Zoning—Fry, Nomm and Johnson; City Buildings—Basarich, Dallas and Street; Air Pollution—Whitmer, Partney and Moerlien; Pollution Plant—Basarich, Rutledge and Poulos; Special Sewer—Bartoskiak, Green and Boyd; Lights—Moerlien, Robertson and Green; and Human Relations—Partney, Dallas and Boyd.

After the presentation of the council's committee selections, the mayor ruled Robertson's motion for approval out of order.

"Blocking Progress"
Robertson argued that a minority of the council was tying up progress in the city and that there was a need for each alderman to serve to the best of his ability by being active on committees.

"I believe the aldermen are elected to run the city and we should be permitted to do our jobs."

The mayor again ruled the motion out of order.

Moerlien entered the debate, and said he felt the motion for approval of the committees by the council was proper.

"You as a past mayor," Partney told Moerlien, "know that the mayor names committees."

Re-entering the discussion, Robertson suggested the mayor follow the rules and regulations governing the council.

Partney replied that he had conferred with an attorney and knew the proper procedures.

"What about this motion?" Boyd asked.

The mayor answered, "I ruled it out of order."

Boyd then quoted the city code and turned to City Atty. Allen for an opinion, when the mayor repeated that the council should have acted before May 1.

Little Information
Allen agreed there was nothing in the code specifying the May 1 deadline and he added that the handbook on procedures gave very little information on committees.

With that, the 13-0-3 vote favoring the council selection of committees was recorded.

The mayor then called upon Rutledge for a report of the Finance committee. "He's not the chairman," Robertson commented, and Mayor repeated the gavel, repeating his request to Rutledge.

Rutledge submitted the bill list for approval, and Robertson said the council's Finance committee would accept the report. If it would be referred to the new committee.

Approval of the bill list was voted, and then Moerlien called again for a detailed breakdown of the mayor's expense allowance for April which was deferred last week. He added that an itemized listing was not available in the comptroller's office. "Neither are the aldermen's itemized," Fry retorted. There was no further debate on that issue.

The "no report" replies to the mayor's call from the agenda ended with the Human Relations committee.

The mayor called upon Partney for the report, and the alderman answered that he had resigned last week when the mayor had said he would recognize any requests from aldermen to be taken on off his committees.

With committee reports completed, the mayor asked for reports from city officers.

$82,500 Fund Transfer
Comptroller Stevens said there was a resolution for transfer of $82,500 from sales tax to general fund accounts that should be approved if bills and salaries were to be paid.

Another debate ensued as to which chairman should present the resolution. "Are the old committees still in?" Bartoskiak asked.

The mayor replied that he had not changed the committees for two years, even though he believed they should be changed each year. "I try to have every alderman serve on two or three committees," Boyd noted that the mayor had retained many of the chairmen during the past three years.

As the council proceeded to "unfinished business" on the agenda, Moerlien called for action on the fund transfer resolution and payroll.

"If the three members of the Finance committee were absent, the council even then would not pass up the payroll, and we need to get this done tonight," Moerlien stated.

Nomm said he doubted if the council's actions would be legal under the procedures being followed in ignoring committee chairmen.

Moerlien presented the $82,500 fund transfer resolution, which was approved by a vote of 10-4-6. Of the total, $25,000 goes to the fire department, $25,000 to the police department, $5000 to the street department, $2000 to the city hall, $20,000 to the sanitation department, $500 for dog catching, $500 for city planning, $500 for school guard crossing guards, $1000 for the Illinois Municipal Retirement fund and $3000 for interest and judgment.

The $48,518 payroll was approved by a vote of 14-2-2, with Basarich and Nomm dissenting.

Rutledge then asked if he could present other reports from the Finance committee and was given permission by the council.

Vandals Uproot Trees
Stanley Coleman, 3218 Westchester drive, reported at 8 a.m. today that vandals uprooted 32 poplar trees and overturned a statue at his home during the night.

Traffic Signal Charge
Cheryl L. Guth, 2179 Northland drive, was charged with a traffic signal violation at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday at Niedringhaus and Edison avenues.

He submitted the city's annual financial report, and its acceptance was voted down. It showed general fund disbursements of $1,469,357 during the 1967-68 fiscal year and an April 30 general fund balance of $88,580.

Disbursements from special funds amounted to $380,670, and transfers to other accounts amounted to $669,127, leaving a balance of $571,128 on April 30.

At the start of Monday night's meeting, Alderman Nomm was presented with a resolution from the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, honoring him on his 25 years of public service as Fifth Ward alderman. The presentation was made by Len Kozzen, C. of C. vice-president.

MEMORIAL DAY -- 1968

Since 1776 stout hearted young Americans—brave men who are willing to walk in the valleys of the shadow of death—have defended not only their own precious freedoms and heritages, but have gone into the varied corners of the world for freedom from domination by those who would suppress mankind.

We all pause on Memorial Day to pay honor and tribute to the men of all races, colors and creeds who have "given that last full measure of devotion to mankind." Let us give thanks that we have men to whom the freedom of worship, think and act freely is not only worth living for—but, if necessary, dying for—so that future generations may also be free men.

$200 Million Dam, Lock Approved at Engineer Hearing

Construction of a new dam and two 1200-foot locks on the Mississippi River about two miles south of the present Alton dam and locks was approved yesterday at a hearing by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers.

Col. Edward R. Decker, chief engineer of the St. Louis Army Engineer district, said it was hoped the plan will be approved by the Secretary of the Army about Jan. 1. Construction then would depend upon allotment of funds by Congress. The project would cost an estimated $200 million.

Engineering plans would take about three years and construction about six to seven years, Decker said. The present dam and locks were put into use in 1938 and were designed to handle about 40 million tons of barge traffic annually. Use of the Alton lock and dam is rapidly approaching this level and is expected to reach 60 million tons by 1978, Decker said.

About 150 barge line owners and representatives from as far away as New Orleans and Minnesota attended the hearing and generally approved the plan. Several representatives called for temporary improvement at the Alton facility to speed up traffic. The Alton facility has a 600-foot main lock and a 300-foot auxiliary lock.

W. C. F. Kahle, 93, Dies in California

W. C. F. Kahle, 93, of Los Angeles, Calif., formerly of Granite City, died there Friday, May 24 and funeral services were held on Tuesday with interment at Inglewood Park Cemetery.

Mr. Kahle, a long time resident, had a grocery business on East 24th street, for many years prior to his moving to California 40 years ago. He and his wife resided at 2210 Delmar avenue.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Lill Kahle; one son, Elmer Kahle of St. Louis; three daughters, Mrs. Esther Link of St. Louis, Mrs. Olivia Solterich of Detroit, Mich. and Mrs. Lillian O'Neill of 2016 Sken street, Madison.

15 Tickets Remain for June 11 Opera Trip
All seats have been sold for the Granite City park district's initial trip to "My Fair Lady" at the St. Louis Muny Opera next Tuesday evening, however, 15 tickets still remain for the performance of the same show on Tuesday, June 11, according to Park Supt. Harold Brown.

Reserved seats at $3.25 per person, plus a $1 charge for transportation may be obtained by calling the Wilson Park office at 877-3859. Three busloads of local theatre fans will make the June 11 trip, Brown said.

Hillmer is Frank Steinman, world war I veteran. Standing in background at left is Pat Lindsey, also a world war I veteran. A total of 361 crosses was erected, representing area war victims of Spanish-American, world war I, world war II and Korean conflicts. No Memorial Day parade is planned.

eneue bond issue for the sanitary sewer project.

Total amount available at the outset is $3,500,000, and interest on bond issue money invested by the city while the projects are under construction is estimated to amount to $55,000.

This falls short of the overall cost by $881, but Barotask pointed out that a savings of approximately $100,000 in storm water line construction is anticipated by elimination of granular backfill in sandy soil.

The overall cost has been set at $2,566,811, including $192,904 for the sanitary sewer construction contract with General Contracting Co., $3,098,900 storm water construction contract with S. M. Wilson & Co., $233,200 inspection costs and engineering fees payable to H. W. Lechner Co., $275,000 estimated miscellaneous costs, $29,500 legal fees with Horace Calvo and consulting bond attorney firms, $4312 interest charge during construction of the sanitary sewers, $2500 for HUD inspection fees, $2013 for printing and $3482 for an added sanitary sewer line along Rock road.

Repay Planning Loan
Bartosiak told council members the available sewer funds also should be ample to pay the $100 planning loan due to HUD. The total amount owed the federal agency is $41,100, but the engineering firm will pay the remaining $5,000. A resolution in which the engineer agrees to the $23,000 refund was approved by the council Monday night.

Alderman Nann challenged the propriety of negotiating construction cost reductions on the storm sewer project with S. M. Wilson & Co. and not conferring with the two other bidders—A. H. Seebold & Co. and G. H. Sternberg & Co.

Bartosiak said he had obtained approval from HUD and that in a study of the bids relative to the granular backfill costs, the reduction did not change the position of the low bidder.

The contract with S. M. Wilson & Co. was approved with four dissenting votes. Voting "no" were Nann, Basarich, Fry and Parmley.

Payments Approved
Two payments in connection with the sewer and storm water program were approved with Monday night's bill list.

Special Taxing Districts Overlap Other Illinois Governmental Units

(University of Illinois Student Reporting Project)

Special districts account for much of the confusion in Illinois government today. These districts are governmental units which perform one single function, such as drainage.

Because they are independent of the city, they are an important cause of decentralization. But, it is this decentralization which is one of the reasons for their existence. Also, by forming a special district, local governments are able to get around the restrictive tax laws of the state.

To establish a special district, organizers must circulate a petition describing the type and territory involved. This petition must be signed by a percentage or particular portion of the property owners of the proposed district.

The petition is filed with the county court, which holds hearings. If the court approves, the proposal finally goes to the voters, who decide whether the district becomes a reality.

Special districts have the powers of suing and being sued, hiring employees, taxing, borrowing money and acquiring property. Other duties depend on the nature of the district.

Property taxes are the main means of support for special districts, and are levied on property valuation. The state legislature sets the tax limit. For example, in the last session, the property tax limit for health districts was raised from six cents to 7 1/2 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Minor sources of income are special assessments, service charges and bonds.

A district cannot go into debt more than 5% of the total assessed property valuation within its borders. Many districts have no borrowing power.

The three main reasons for the existence of special districts are to remove districts from partisan politics, to obtain professional administrators and to easily gain taxpayer support.

Special districts do remove certain necessary and non-political functions from politics. Often, an elected official will be unwilling to act because of fear of voter reaction. Thus, a needed increase in the fire protection tax will be dropped.

This is not the case for special districts, which may be indirectly controlled by elected officials. For example, the Champaign-Urbana Health District has a three-member board composed of the supervisors of Champaign and Urbana (Urbana) townships and the chairman of the county board of supervisors.

Secondly, special districts are in keeping with the national and state trends in specialization. For example, sanitation engineers prefer to deal with other sanitation engineers. It is difficult for specialists to deal with untrained city officials.

Lastly, taxpayer support is supposedly gained by special districts. The taxpayer, for example, is able to see on an itemized bill precisely where his money goes. That is, if he gets an itemized bill.

Although special districts may have some advantages, the problems they cause far outweigh the good points. One of the problems is the overlapping of many districts.

For example, Du Page County has 89 taxing districts. Other counties like Champaign county have 70 drainage districts alone.

To add to the confusion, many of these special districts overlap each other.

Boundaries are not drawn along existing lines, but tend to take in a little more or less than the county, township or municipal boundaries. This makes it difficult for districts to perform their functions.

Another problem is lack of coordination. E. J. Beatty, engineering manager of the Urbana-Champaign Sanitary District, cited a drainage district south of Champaign which had been eroded by meandering rivers because local officials could not cooperate with federal experts.

Federal agents gave up because they just couldn't work with all these units," Beatty said.

In many cases, the overlapping districts may use different methods and have different methods of voter control. Thus, they are less responsive to public demands.

Another weakness is also a strength. Although professionals are often made by untrained ex-officio boards, so that the district is poorly run, although they usually are not directly in politics.

Although the taxpayer may know when his money goes, he may be losing more of it because of special districts, according to J. C. Phillips, professor of political science at the University of Illinois. They are "additional burdens" because the taxpayer must also support general government costs.

Something should be done about special districts. The real problem is what? Possible solutions are consolidation, coordination and intergovernmental cooperation.

Consolidation would solve many problems. For example, small drainage or education districts would be more efficient and less expensive if consolidated. Districts could also learn to cooperate in buying and on special projects.

A report on special districts by the city of Park Ridge suggested two intergovernmental solutions. The first, intergovernmental joint action, would allow for two or more districts to combine on financing, property buying, operations, staffing. The trouble here is that the Illinois constitution would need changing.

The second suggestion is an intergovernmental service corporation, which would be "quasi-independent." It would be responsible for financing, property buying, operations and staffing.

It would be controlled by a governing board composed of members of the city councils or boards involved. The cities and villages involved would control the money used for financing these corporations.

The trouble with these two suggestions is that special districts, only one or better ones, would exist. It might be better to put these special districts back under the control of the general governments as departments.

Beatty suggested this: "The county board should assume responsibility for drainage in the county," he said.

Year 2000—Farm Workers from MIT

Tractors that run without operators... milk from carrot tops and pea pods... cows with 100 offspring... plastic domes covering areas of cropland... corn plants that look like small pine trees... scientists for farm hands, perhaps graduates of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

This is the picture painted of American agriculture at the turn of the next century in "Milk From Carrot Tops," the current issue of the "Employment Service Review."

The article is based on a two-year study by the Ford Motor Co. and a panel of the country's leading agricultural experts.

"The efficient farmer of the year 2000," the article says, "will be a super breed of farmer, with super skills and super tools."

Judge Austin Lewis One of the Most Active Citizens, Officials in Quad-City History

The life of Austin Lewis, who died suddenly this week, spanned much of the history of the Quad-Cities and his name and career are interwoven prominently throughout that history.

In all phases of local life, especially public service, he consistently was "where the action is," serving in a wide variety of public offices. Included were the positions of associate circuit judge, his current office, and Madison county probate judge, state's attorney, public defender, Venice school board president, Tri-City Regional Port District commissioner, Madison county council and city attorney, Madison school attorney and Venice park, school and township attorney. Noted as the chief prosecutor in this county for many years, he also established an effective record later as a defense attorney.

Employed since the age of 12, when he became a Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. messenger, he was a Barber Asphalt Co. laborer, worked for International Shoe Co. leather cutter and a Wabash & Chicago & Alton railroad clerk before completing his schooling and establishing a busy law practice. Volunteering for the World War I at the age of 21, he served as a counter-intelligence special agent and earned five battle stars in Europe.

An Eagle Scout who became Boy Scout council president and Madison-Venice Khoury baseball commissioner, he was active in youth work many years and in his court decisions took full account of any prospects for rehabilitation of young offenders.

Despite an active political role during lawless and controversial years, he retained a wide circle of friendship and respect, and at the time of his death was respected as one of the most able jurists in Illinois. He will be missed in this community, where he was a lifelong resident, and on the circuit court bench.

Mr. Lewis was born in Venice, Mo., and moved to Granite City in 1902. He was married to Mrs. Mary E. Lewis and had three children: Mrs. Mary E. Lewis, Mrs. Mary E. Lewis and Mrs. Mary E. Lewis.

Income Disclosure By Candidates, Officials Still a Sound Practice

The pledge by one of the 55th District state representatives to disclose his income sources and other financial data raises the question of whether the other General Assembly aspirants will do the same.

Such information would provide helpful reassurance to voters, especially in the case of representatives. Leland Kennedy and Horace Calvo are labor's selection and should be supported by all labor.

WADE CAMPBELL, 14 Briarcliff, President, Local 4804, United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO.

CALVO, AN ATTORNEY FOR UNION, WROTE CITY LAW TO THE EDITOR:

In the Forum May 20 there was an article by a retired union man, who failed to say if he had retired prior to the strike or after the dispute was resolved.

He probably through lack of knowledge or inactivity in the union or from not knowing the inner working circles of the union doesn't know that Horace Calvo, candidate for state representative, helped prepare the first Anti-Strike Breaker Ordinance, which was introduced to the ordinance that was passed by the Granite City Council.

He also must not know that Calvo is endorsed by labor, and has the endorsement of the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education, and also is recommended for election as state representative by the Illinois State AFL-CIO.

Calvo is also the attorney for the United Steelworkers of America, and helped and assisted members of the United Steelworkers to resolve 608 workmen compensation cases in the Granite City area for settlements of approximately $268,000 for them and their families.

Myself and other members of the labor recent letters such as written by this retired member, and ask him to check with his labor union officers to see what the United Steelworkers unionally contributed to their strike.

We also think Calvo is a great American, a true friend of labor, and a tremendous asset to the working people of this community. All of organized labor should support Calvo in the June 11 election for state representative by the Illinois State AFL-CIO.

those planning to continue law practices and those associated now or previously with interests which from time to time seek legislative action.

Disclosure has been made in the past, either publicly or to news media, by holders of such offices as U. S. senator, state senator, state representative, sheriff and state's attorney. It is only one of many factors which voters will wish to consider in ranking as one of the most important.

Growing List of War Dead Adds to Impact of the 100th Memorial Day

Quad-Cityans tomorrow will mourn and honor their war dead—the local men and other Americans who have given their lives while defending the cause of liberty on fields of battle, on the ocean and in the air.

Looming large in the thoughts of everyone will be the 19 killed during the Vietnam war, including 16 in direct confrontation with the enemy and three in training for overseas service.

The list of heroes, who collectively have won numerous awards for gallantry, has been a steady increase as the conflict accelerated.

1965—Marine Pfc. Robert E. Emery, 1966—Army Pfc. Gene E. Chepey, Army Specialist-four David L. Fisher, Air Force Capt. Jarry B. Causey, Marine Pfc. Loren E. Bradley, Marine Pfc. James L. Nash and Navy Airman Frank Leonard Cantlon.

1967—Army Staff Sgt. Ralph R. Justice, Army Warrant Officer-candidate Kenneth Miller, Army Pfc. James Ray Dowdy, Marine Pfc. Joe C. Leutenegger, Army Specialist-four Richard Shilt, Marine Cpl. Richard John Giebel, Army Pfc. Michael E. Adams, Army Pfc. Bradley, Marine Pfc. James L. Nash and Navy Airman Frank Leonard Cantlon.

1968—Marine Cpl. Blaze Magyar III, Army Pvt. Donnell Bell and Army Specialist-five Gerald Lee Elliott.

In addition, Navy Lieutenant (junior grade) Roger B. Innes has been listed as missing in action in Vietnam since Dec. 27, 1967. Sorrow over their loss does not diminish the bright lustre of their valor and their willingness to risk all in performing the duties assigned to them by their country.

Memorial Day, 1968, has special meaning, not only because it is the 100th such observance but because their deaths have provided renewed faith that freedom and America can and will live on.

Downtown Granite City Logs (Per Capita) Far Behind St. Louis

Dedication of the riverfront Gateway Arch in St. Louis has revealed some highly impressive statistics, not only about St. Louis, but about what has been accomplished during the 1960s toward rehabilitation of downtown St. Louis.

Approximately $300 million has been spent on new construction and renovation of commercial property; for residential, entertainment and recreational, parking, retailing and other new facilities. This compares to roughly $425 per capita of St. Louis' population.

All of which brings this intriguing thought: A similar per capita investment in downtown Granite City would have resulted in $17 million worth of improvements during the same period.

We haven't done even one-fourth as well as downtown St. Louis, spending less than $100 per capita here; yet, we are as desperately in need of rehabilitation as any city in the nation.

URGES LABOR UNANIMITY

In Physical Fitness, Aerobics Separate the Haves, Have Nots

"Aerobics" by Dr. Kenneth Cooper, New York: Bantam Books, 182 pages, $1.

(Reviewed by Ronald G. Knowlton, a member of the faculty of the Department of Physical Education for Men, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.)

Review published in the Daily Express, STU Department of Journalism, Carbondale.

Investigators in physical education, physiology and medicine who have directed their research to man's physical fitness have agreed that the critical measure of this quality is the physiological ability to absorb and utilize environmental oxygen during exertion.

This is called aerobic power and this is what "Aerobics" by Dr. Cooper is all about.

If you have it, your heart pumps more blood per minute than the have nots, your lungs process more air per minute than the have nots, and your various blood working muscles more effectively than the have nots.

By contrast, the have nots are setting new records for cardiovascular disease, particularly those who compound risk with such other factors as smoking, emotional tension and obesity.

As a medical man, Dr. Cooper attempts a pharmacopoeia of exercise training to develop aerobic capacities in men and women.

It is not surprising to find the ingredients of this prescription to be running, swimming, and bicycling in order of importance.

Many readers, however, will be disappointed that he discards golf, bowling, isometrics and many popular recreational activities as significant to the attainment of aerobic power. The essence of the book is Chapter 7, "The Training Effect." Based on a simple 12-minute test of aerobic capacity, a fitness category is derived that is the basis of a personalized program of aerobic activities.

Under a system of point accumulation, an equivalent value of 30 points of activity should ultimately be tabulated per week.

This point system has an appeal to those who desire an objective measure of their efforts.

The standards are a realistic challenge for most people. A regular program is progressive, and the activities are consistent with an aerobic fitness objective.

As a scientific report, however, the book possesses extrapolation of data and incomplete descriptions of the laboratory methodology utilized in basic research performance tests.

The ingredients of the prescription are not startling, as it is well-established that physical exercise of low resistance is the foundation of cardiovascular training.

Dr. Cooper's book has received wide national attention.

It is, however, whether "Aerobics" will become a bookshelf ornament beside other volumes which deal with the preservation of natural resources or whether it generates a course of action.

The degeneration of human aerobic power is no different than the problem of river and stream pollution in this respect.
